

Hello Goodbye Hello

Kim Bum-Soo

My memories
Are fading in the rain
My broken heart
Cannot be used again

It seems that once again
My love is leaving
Breaking up my dreams
So hear me now my love
Hello, goodbye, hello

But I know I'll see you
Down the road
To wave a hand
To weave the shadows

Should I ever even mention
That I long to hold you again
Oh, I hope you're not too cold

Kinda' simple
When you think it out
Without a doubt
It's plain as it can be

I know the wind has found
A new direction
So it let me know
That I have to live
My day alone

So hear me now
Hello, goodbye, hello
Don't get me wrong
I know you have to go

Hey look it's sad enough
Can you imagine
If you felt that low
So hear me now my love
Hello, goodbye, hello

If you feel some music
Calling you
Slow dance along
But think about our joy

I'll do the same thing
Every time I want you
Sad enough I know
But somehow I know
That I'll survive

So hear me now
Hello, goodbye, hello
Don't get me wrong

Hey look it's sad enough
Can you imagine
If you felt that low
So hear me now my love

So hear me now my love
