

Sweeter

Kim Burrell

Today is another day, new mercies I see
Lord, I'm in your hands, I know you'll comfort me
It gets a little rough times, don't know what to do
But Lord, I know you will help me make it through

Every day is sweeter, sweeter than the day before
Every day is sweeter, learning how to love you more
Every day is sweeter, sweeter than the day before
Every day is sweeter

Waiting for the sun to shine
'Cause I know my joy's coming in the morning light
Oh now that my eyes do see
Lord, I know, you really really love me
The more I get to know you I find out that you're so good for me
You've been so good to me

Every day is sweeter, sweeter than the day before
Every day is sweeter, learning how to love you more
Every day is sweeter, sweeter than the day before
Every day is sweeter

Every day is sweeter, sweeter to me
Every day's sweeter, You're so sweet
Every day is sweeter, sweeter than the day before
Every day's sweeter

You're good on the Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday
, Saturday, the Sunday
You're getting sweeter
Every day makes me wanna add another day to my week 'cause you're so sweet

You're good on the Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday
, Saturday, Sunday
Cause every day you're getting sweeter every day

You're good on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday
You're good to me every day
You're getting sweeter

You're good to me on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday
Everyday is sweeter to me

You're good on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Sa turday, Sunday

You're getting sweeter every day
