

3 Bullets

Kim Dracula

Three bullets fly into my heart
Tell me when the fuck the show starts

Three bullets fly into my heart
Tell me when the fuck the show starts
Crying at night in the car-park
It's so cute how you're scared of the dark
Three bullets fly into my heart
Tell me when the fuck the show starts
Crying at night in the car-park
It's so cute how you're scared of the dark

I don't wanna see that fuckin' look in your eye
I think if I saw it again I'd start to go blind, hey girl
I know what you like
I know what you hide
I'll think about all the memories later

You rule the world
You rule the world
You rule the world
You rule the world

Three bullets fly into my heart
Tell me when the fuck the show starts
Crying at night in the car-park
It's so cute how you're scared of the dark
Three bullets fly into my heart
Tell me when the fuck the show starts
Crying at night in the car-park
It's so cute how you're scared of the dark
