

Seventy Thorns

Kim Dracula

A little worm (A little worm)
In a sea of shit (In a sea of shit)
Take the wrong turn (Take the wrong turn)
In your face, I spit

You left me in the corner of your eye
You left me in the corner of your eye
You left me in the corner of your eye
You left me in the corner of your-
Eye

I'll take it personally
You are versed in virtually nerfing the herd belief
Heard at least twenty people take turns to speak
I'm sick of feeling like I'm a villain in the first degree

Stick your middle fingers up and flip 'em to God
I don't know anybody out there that can get me a job
Not the one that I just put 'em in then they take 'em away
I wanna see about all of the buckets of venomous animals a different way

I wanna feel something
I wanna feel something
I wanna feel something
I wanna feel something

I want to be the one who hurts you
I want to be the one that cares
Feelings intense, they're hard to swallow
It feeds the fear

Now soldier on (Now soldier on)
Shattered stillborn (Shattered stillborn)
All hope is gone (All hope is-)
No roses ever come without thorns

Yeah

I wanna take you outside and see what you taste like
Like bombs with gasoline hanging from a children's kite

I want to be the one who hurts you
I want to be the one that cares
Feelings intense, they're hard to swallow
It feeds the fear
