

Confession

Kim Petras

Baby, I got a confession
Yeah, you're my only obsession
Gotta make you my possession
Once I get you, I'll never let you go (Let you go, go)
I think you know my intention
Don't need the cars or the mansions
Gotta make you my possession
Once I get you, I'll never let you go (Let you go, go)

I've got so many diamonds and rings
I don't need more material things
But lately you've been all in my dreams
Yeah, and I got to have you
I got to have you

I've been to Paris and Tokyo
Tried everything, my mind's never blown
But late at night, when I'm all alone
I got to have you

Baby, I got a confession (Confession)
Yeah, you're my only obsession (Obsession)
Gotta make you my possession (Possession)
Once I get you, I'll never let you go (Let you go, go)
I think you know my intention (Intention)
Don't need the cars or the mansions (The mansions)
Gotta make you my possession (Possession)
Once I get you, I'll never let you go (Let you go, go)

If you were mine, I'd buy you the world
You'd never think of no other girl
And if you want it, just say the word (Say the word)
Yeah, 'cause I got to have you
I got to have you

I'll take you to the moon and the sun (Yeah)
One taste of me and you'll be done, done, done, done (Yeah)
My love will make you shoot like a gun (Yeah)
'Cause I've got to have you (Oh, I got to have you)

Baby, I got a confession (Confession)
Yeah, you're my only obsession (Obsession)
Gotta make you my possession (Possession)
Once I get you, I'll never let you go (Let you go, go)
I think you know my intention (Intention)
Don't need the cars or the mansions (The mansions)
Gotta make you my possession (Possession)
Once I get you, I'll never let you go (Let you go, go)
