

Good

Kim Richey

You've got a way about you
I haven't laughed since he's been gone
He was a sad song playing
Over and over for too long

I loved him so much
I was so sure of what we had
That when he left me
He really left me bad

Good, good enough, I'm feeling good, so good
I'm feeling good enough to love again
So good, back on the mend
Oh, you make me feel good, good enough to love again

I don't know how you do it
Baby, I'm sure glad you did
Even old what's his name
Could never get to me like this

You're like a good dream
About the best I've ever had
It turns out his leaving
Really wasn't all that bad

Good, good enough, I'm feeling good, so good
I'm feeling good enough to love again
So good, back on the mend
Yeah, you make me feel good, good enough to love again

Good, good enough, I'm feeling good, so good
I'm feeling good enough to love again
So good, back on the mend
Oh, you make me feel good, good enough to love again
Oh, you make me feel good, good enough to love again
