

Insatiable

Kim Walker-Smith

Jealous for my attention
Longing for my affection
You call me beloved
You call me friend
You never stop pursuing
Craving for communion
You call me beloved
You call me friend

I couldn't dare imagine
The depths of Your devotion
Wilder than oceans
Oh-oh-oh

Insatiable
You'll never stop until You have it all
You can have it all
My heart and soul
You'll never stop until You have it all
So You can have it all
You can have it all
Ooh-oo-oo...

You can have my attention
You can have my affection
'Cause You are my beloved
You are my friend
I'll never stop pursuing
Craving for communion
'Cause You are my beloved
My closest friend

Jesus, I surrender
Become my one obsession
Till nothing else matters
Oh-oh-oh

Insatiable
You'll never stop until You have it all
You can have it all
My heart and soul
You'll never stop until You have it all
So You can have it all
Oh-oh...

Your love is an all-consuming fire
Your love is an all-consuming fire
And all that You ask for is surrender
Your love is an all-consuming fire

Insatiable
You'll never stop until You have it all
You can have it all
My heart and soul
You'll never stop until You have it all
So You can have it all

Your love is an all-consuming fire
Your love is an all-consuming fire
And all that You ask for is surrender

Insatiable
