Oh we trust you Jesus
Give us faith like a child
Faith that trusts their Father
You are true to every word and every promise
You will not fail me, You will not let me down, no

Give us faith like a child
Faith like a child
Simply believe
Simply believe

Come with Your love Jesus
Your love that drives out all fear
Your love that draws us in, draws us close to You Jesus

Now these are always the moments right here
When I can feel the Father bringing greater healing to those of us who are fatherless
Some times, it's it's hard to trust when what you have known was something completely different
Maybe you were let down
Maybe you were abandoned
Maybe you were hurt
Maybe you were abused
And some times it's hard to see the Father, to trust the Father
But He's so patient and He's so kind
If you're one of those people, this is a this is a moment and opportunity right here to just surrender just a little bit more

And to trust the Father
The one who made you
The one who knows you
The one who calls you
The one who saved you
The one who will restore you
The one who will restore you
The Father who loves you
The Father who knows you

You can trust, you can trust
You can trust, just a little bit at a time
Surrender, surrender
You will not be disappointed
You will not be disappointed
You will not be disappointed
Surrendering your all and giving Him your all
He will not let you down

He doesn't require perfection
He doesn't require perfection
He will meet you right where you are
He will meet you right where you are
Right where you are, right where you are, yes

Just an open heart
Just an open heart saying yes
Surrendering and saying yes

Father

Fill this room with Your love
The greatest love I know
Fill this room with Your love
Nothing compares, nothing compares
Fill this room with Your love, Your peace
The one who holds your future
The one who knows your every need
Fill this room with Your love
Fill this room with Your love, Jesus
