

Whole World

Kim Walker-Smith

Underneath the big sky, I'm perfectly fine to feel small
I know that You hold it all
I'm just a spark in a sea full of stars
But You etched my name on Your heart

You've got the whole world
You've got the whole world
In Your hands, in Your hands

In the wild of the open, I'm lost and I don't even mind
I know You won't leave my side
You're in control when so much is unknown
There's no chance that You'll let me go

You've got the whole world
You've got the whole world
In Your hands, in Your hands

I will be content, caught in the mystery
I know that You're here
I may not see it yet, but I'm trusting in things unseen
There's nothing to fear

You've got the whole world
You've got the whole world
In Your hands
(You've got the whole world)
You've got the whole world
You've got the whole world
In Your hands, in Your hands
In Your hands
