

Wild Heart

Kim Walker-Smith

He isn't tame, He is free
He has no limits, no boundaries
That's the wild heart of our Father
There's no distance He wouldn't go
To chase us down, to bring us hope
That's the wild heart of our Father

He's running, running
To the ends of the earth
He stops at nothing
'Til we return
We're coming back
We're coming back to Your heart

When He speaks, the whole world shakes
The darkness trembles at His name
It's the wild heart of our Father
Extravagant, relentless still
We're sons and daughters, He calls us children
The wild heart of our Father

He's running, running
To the ends of the earth
He stops at nothing
'Til we return
We're coming back
We're coming back to Your heart
He's running, running
To the ends of the earth
He stops at nothing
'Til we return
We're coming back
We're coming back to Your heart

Wilder than a fire
As boundless as the sea
Your love is on the move
And it's coming after me
It's Your nature to be gracious
You've loved us from the start
You'll never stop pursuing
With Your wild heart
Wilder than a fire
As boundless as the sea
Your love is on the move
And it's coming after me
It's Your nature to be gracious
You've loved us from the start
You'll never stop pursuing
With Your wild heart
Your wild heart

He's running, running
To the ends of the earth
He stops at nothing
'Til we return

We're coming back to Your heart, yeah, ayy
He's running, running
To the ends of the earth
He stops at nothing
'Til we return
We're coming back
We're coming back to Your heart
