

Midnight Train

Kim Wilde

Stirring up memories like a photograph
Looking for an image and I had to laugh
'Cause you belong here
You're complete
Staring at the mirror like a total stranger
Everyone around me are in mortal danger
They'll never know
They won't see

There's only me and I'm moving on
Grabbing the chance of love in vain
Only me
On this Midnight Train

The guilt still sticking like Elastoplast
Smoke without fire is the hydro blast
I don't belong here
There's no conceit

There's only me and I'm moving on
Fighting the world with broken hands
Ride with me
On this Midnight Train

The Midnight Train
The Midnight Train

Ride with me

The midnight train
Curse my sorrow, I don't know where to begin
The midnight train
Curse my sorrow, I don't know where to begin
To redeem myself
Curse my sorrow, show me just how to begin

There's only me and I'm moving on
Grabbing the chance of love in vain
Only me
On this Midnight Train
