Fall

Kimberly Cole

You're flirting dangerously close to the fire
Do you think you won't get burned?

Time after time I try to tell you
But it seems you'll never learn

I'm not ashamed to tell you
I loved you more than I ever loved before

And never dare tell me
That I'm the one
But I'm not sure anymore

If you keep pushing
What will it do?
My back is up against the wall

I'm on the edge of me and you, you
I feel I'm about to fall
Fall, fall
I love to fall
Fall, fall
I love to fall
Fall, fall, fall, fall
I'm in love with you

Promise, I had to promise
And you still don't come through
How does it feel to tell those lies?

If I had a dime or a dollar
For every time you made me holler
I'd be a queen on top of a tower
And make you eat those words, boy

I'm not ashamed to tell you
I loved you more than I ever loved before

But I'm not afraid to leave you
Cause I'm not sure
That you're worth my time anymore

If you keep pushing
What will it do?
My back is up against the wall

I'm on the edge of me and you, you
I feel I'm about to fall
Fall, fall
I love to fall
Fall, fall
I love to...

Standing on the edge
And if you left for me
And the ground is shaking
Underneath my feet

Standing on the edge

If you keep pushing
What will it do?
My back is up against the wall

I'm on the edge of me and you, you

If you keep pushing
What will it do?
(What will it do?)
My back is up against the wall

I'm on the edge of me and you, you
Fall, fall
I love to fall
Fall, fall
I love to fall
I'm in love with you

I'm in love with you
