

Personal Space

Kimbra

Closer than close every waking moment in
Each other's arms and hands
One, two
Night-time repose but I'm still awake dreaming
Hope that you'll understand

It's been a long time since I been in
My very own skin, I admit it
I'm feeling like I might need a minute
More

It's been a good while, I'm forgetting
'Cause I don't think I've had time to sit in it
And make sure that it's all I've been waiting for

You're all that I do
And I ain't got nothing but love for you
It's true
My heart can't lie
We're always like two
And I just wanna be one for you
But I know that I'll always need my
Personal space
I need my

Time on my own just to be my own best friend
I'll kill time without you there
I need my
Place to erase all the lines we've been drawing
On each other's lives and plans

It's not like I'm hearing warning bells
It's not like I've met somebody else
It's just a thing that my body tells me

Don't go take the wrong meaning
Yeah, I'm trying to tell you all that I'm feeling
But this time I just need myself to grow

You're all that I do
And I ain't got nothing but love for you
It's true
My heart can't lie
We're always like two
And I just wanna be one for you
Ooh, but I know that I'll always need my Personal space

I need my
Personal space
All our time facing to face
Well, I need my personal place

Ooh, I need my
Ooh, I need my
Ooh, I need my
Ooh, I need my
