

For Boxer

Kimya Dawson

flying, sailing, dying, same thing when you get to heaven find all of my friends there tell them that i miss them and i'll see them when i'm done here

and i think about them almost every single night sometimes i get so sad and scared i sleep with the lights on

i hope you no that losing you's the hardest thing on earth for me i love you so very much my pretty little kitty
