

Me & Maxine

King 810

I'm in over my head what have I done
Got me a woman she loves me dearly she is the one
But I know this girl this devilish thing
She's hot like Satan and she moves like fire, her name is Maxine

And we run the world me and Maxine
I know she got a man but she likes my hands down in her jeans
And it makes her sing..

I know I know, I'm supposed to know
More of Fitzgerald, more of Hemingway, more of Thoreau
But she keeps me distracted this devilish thing
And she feels like brimstone, but when I take her shirt off, she could have wings

And we run the world me and Maxine
I know she got a man but she likes my hands down in her jeans
And we run the world me and Maxine
I know she got a man but she likes my hands down in her jeans
And sometimes she sings...
