

Melancholy Julia

King Charles

Oh the sky
Looming over the sea
Ruling over the sign
Losing grip of the sun
Oh what a heavy sky
What will we become?

Lately I
Lately I, lately I
Lately I, lately I
Lately I've been alone
Where do I, where do I
Where do I belong

When we were young
We held to life lightly
I was a fool for ya
Melancholy Julia

We would go
Chasing after our lives
Chasing after our selves
Chasing every breath
Under heavy sky
You were so pretty

When we were young
Living life lightly
I was a fool for ya
Melancholy Julia

Will I ever see you again?
Oh will I ever see you again?
Will we be peaceful, peaceful old timers?
Old friend

When we were young
We let life slip by lightly
I was a fool for ya
Melancholy Julia

I know I will see you again
And I know that I'll see you again
And we'll be peaceful, peaceful old timers
Old friend

When we were young
The sky was so heavy
When we were young
Life was a mystery
When we were young
Life was a mystery
When we were young
