Nothing At The Most

King Charles

When [?] must die
When [?] must die
No coffins or sound
No church bells were rung
Don't leave me now
Don't let love die
Don't let me live
If love drowns, so must I

When the night comes falling
The day seems so much like a ghost
Tells me I know nothing, I know nothing
I know nothing, nothing at the most

Take what you need
There's no room for love inside
These lonely walls now
Oh don't walk out

When the night comes falling
The day seems so much like a ghost
Tells me I know nothing, I know nothing
I know nothing, nothing at the most
But if I know anything I know
I know that I loved you the most
But if I know anything I know
I know that I loved you the most

Well I'm chasing
The blue
And [?] following too
I cannot get away from you

When the night comes falling
The day seems so much like a ghost
Tells me I know nothing, I know nothing
I know nothing, nothing at the most
But if I know anything I know
I know that I loved you the most
But if I know anything I know
I know that I loved you the most
