

Bleed

King Dude

I can see it in your eyes now
And hear it in your screams
I wander right beside you
But only in your dreams
If nothing lasts forever
And all we do is bleed and bleed and bleed
Then I wonder what you know now
All my enemies

I can see it in your eyes now
I hear it in your screams
I wander right beside you
But only in your dreams
'Cause if nothing lasts forever
And all we do is bleed and bleed and bleed
Then I wonder what you dream now
Except of my enemies
