

Well, I can see it, I feel it
I'll sleep when I'm dead
Please don't conceal
Or reveal that it was all in my head
I need a doctor just to talk to
Did you hear what I said?
I'm in the middle of a riddle
All wrapped up in your bed
She don't believe me when she sees me
Looking like a young man
I get excited at the sight of an invisible hand

You've got the dogs barking at me now
Was that your big plan?
I could pull the teeth out of the beast
Ain't I the wickedest man?

Oh baby, you're so fucking crazy
I must be out of my mind
To want you all of the time
Oh no, I think I'm out of control
You never cease to amaze me
Baby, you're so fucking crazy

You got that [?] on your pocket
From the book on my shelf
I know your mama and your papa
Know what I'm talking 'bout
You can't be clean if you're mean
Oh, you summon me now?
I can't believe all the things
Falling out of your mouth
I heard you talking, it ain't louder
Than the words in my head
I know these words, they don't mean nothing
Like the blood that you shed

Is it the life that you're living
Or the life that you've led
That makes the crime you committed?
But we forgive, forgive, forgive

Oh baby, you're so fucking crazy
I must be out of my mind
To want you all of the time
Oh no, I think I'm out of control
You never cease to amaze me
Baby, you're so fucking crazy
