

Deal With the Devil

King Dude

The first time I saw her the angels weeped
I knew what had to be done
The blood in my veins mixed with MDMA
Jesus Christ told me I was in love

The black of her hair matched the color I wear
And the color that sits in my lungs
Just one kiss on her lips and I'd ceased to exist
And the devil, he won't ever come, he won't ever come

Somebody killed my baby in the days I've been gone
She's gone up to Heaven where I know she doesn't belong
I'll do anything, my friends, to see her again
Even though I know it'd be wrong
I'll make a deal with the Devil to get this right by God
I'll make a deal with the Devil to get this right by God

I know it was you, I seen you before
Hanging around my baby's back door
You might think it's fate that I've come to this place
And I stick in your side like a thorn

The truth is my word and the Devil is real
And I broke your name out of his seal
And the fee he commands is one soul of a man
So I'll give him his end of this deal

Oh, my baby is gone
It was you who took her from me all along
Ooh, and the Devil is real
I gave him my soul to make my baby whole, he is real

Somebody killed my baby in the days I've been gone
She's gone up to Heaven where I know she doesn't belong
I'll do anything, my friends, to see her again
Even though I know it'd be wrong
I'll make a deal with the Devil to get this right by God
I'll make a deal with the Devil to get this right by God
Said I'll make a deal with the Devil to make this right by God
Said I'll make a deal with the Devil to make this right by God
