

Desolate Hour

King Dude

I looked in the eyes of a Babylon fire
I looked in the eyes of the beast
And the blood of the devil
Will narrow its path
And the blood of the devil
Is a river running wild through me

In the desolate hour, baby
In Lucifer's sun
In the desolate hour, baby
You'll come undone

I looked in the eyes of a Babylon fire
I looked in the eyes of the beast
And the blood of the devil
Will narrow its path
And the blood of the devil
Is a river running wild through me

In the desolate hour, baby
In Lucifer's sun
In the desolate hour, baby
You'll come undone

In the desolate hour, baby
In Lucifer's sun
In the desolate hour, baby
In Lucifer's sun
In the desolate hour, baby
In Lucifer's sun
In the desolate hour, baby
You'll come undone
