

Lay Down in Bedlam

King Dude

Fell in love with the moon last night
Gave myself a hell of a fright
Couldn't stand the way that she held me tight
Didn't get no sleep at all
Moon had me up against the wall
Couldn't hear nothing but her siren's call

The moon will love me all night long
Oh yeah, that moon will love me all night long
And now I understand the Lord's almighty plan
'Cause ain't nothing on Earth could make a man fan in love with the moon

Since the day I turned 21
Didn't know what I would become Until I turned my back on the sun
Then the night cast down her shroud
And when no one else was around
I felt her love come shining down

The moon will love me all night long
Oh yeah, that moon will love me all night long
And now I understand the Lord's almighty plan
'Cause ain't nothing on Earth could make a man fan in love with
the moon

Every night I raise my head
As she lay down on my bed
Until the day that I am dead
And now I know where I can go
She picks me up when I am low
Ain't no woman in the world could love me more

The moon will love me all night long
Oh yeah, that moon will love me all night long
And now I understand the Lord's almighty plan
'Cause ain't nothing on Earth could make a man
Ain't nothing on Earth could make a man
Ain't nothing on Earth could make a man fan in love with the mo on