

My Beloved Ghost

King Dude

And on an oath
He swore he's alive
And the dead will live
And the dead will rise

And the blood will run
For the rest of our days
And it won't go away
It won't go away

Hold me close, you holy ghost
And don't let go until I choke
You're right upon my bed, dead end sleep

Dream of me, breathe for me
Eat my flesh, drink my blood, become love

And the oceans will rise
As the dead did before
And you won't be alone
For long anymore

And if Lucifer lives
And if Lucifer's right
Then he lives in me
He lives in light

Hold me close, you holy ghost
And don't let go until I choke
You're right upon my bed, dead end sleep

Eat my flesh, drink my blood, become love
