

Satan's Ghost

King Dude

In the age, at the edge of time
Living life in a dead dog's eye
There will be, prayers spoke
Goat horns for satan's ghost
For satan's ghost

At the dawn, the devil will come
Holding christ like a new born fawn
There will be, clouds of smoke
Goat horns for satan's ghost
For satan's ghost

Tell me what you see, young child when christ is your enemy
His blood is said to set us free, from the chains and the bonds of humanity
For satan's ghost

Tell me what know, old man when you serve this holy ghost Don't you know that lucifer is close, and the gods will always be your host?
For satan's ghost
