

White Faces

King Dude

I'm friend with a beast
Because of its sharp teeth
And the devil is so red
He has such a cool, cool head

White faces, white faces
Always haunt me so beautifully
Burning temples, meditating churches
All the white of the devil in me

The back, the back
Of demonism that is begin
Teeth gnashing
At the beauty of every [?]

White faces, white faces
Always haunt me so beautifully
Burning temples, meditating churches
All the white of the devil in me

Colorful, so colorful
Riding with the serpent's dragon
Fire breathing, fire breathing
While serpent's tongue a'waggin'

White faces, white faces
Always haunt me so beautifully
Burning temples, meditating churches
All the white of the devil in me
All the white of the devil in me
All the white of the devil in me
