

No Body

King Gizzard & The Lizard Wizard

I floated up and for the first time I could relax and unplug
My friend, it felt good

To shuffle off of this mortal coil
To rise like oil in water

To be not real
To have no soul
To have no body

I woke to an eye-adjusting fright
Baptised in the light
And found myself in purgatory white
Dead again in the void

What was the lesson, God?
No, no, no, no body
Are you real or not?
No, no, no, no body

In death I know
Life was a hallucination
