

Panpsych

King Gizzard & The Lizard Wizard

Can you feel the weight of the earth on your shoulders?
Are you always sailing through troubled waters?
And born under a cloud, the earth, the sea, the sky
The earth, the sea, the sky
One roof, one house

What will be, will be
Find your zen, embrace the journey
Panpsych in hand
In every grain of sand
There holds a mind which can expand
From now until the next big bang

One is all and all is one
Spirit in every form
Thou art that and that art thou
Panpsych
The wind whispers a secret message for those who've grown ears to hear it
You're inside it, be within it
Panpsych

Slurp the sweet divine of the pearl oyster
Wanderer's amulet for the latte pastures
Next stop unknown to the primitive cockroach
We are omnipresent
Intertwined horoscope

I am trying to pick a path
Past the psychic wind
Past the astral dreadnought
I am flying straight through the stars
Gimme that life giving linkage to my higher self with a pure heart

I, I am the wind and sea
I am that stabbing pain
Creeping in your higher mind
Beaming in your astral plane
I am the bright red blood coursing through your little veins
I'm thought your arm has 'fore your mind can catch it feign

You've been bathing within me for some time
Between the wave and foam, I have been the tide
Unending illusion ad infinitum
But there's always exhalation
The dog on the freeway thinks it's in control
It's testosterone that makes the man think he's strong
Unbending delusion ad infinitum
But there's always exhalation

You're inside it
Be within it
It's creeping higher
Exhalation

It's coming down to the wire
This plane's on fire
It's you

It's us
Ride the magic bus
Crash land in the sand
We'll do it hand in hand
