

Ayahuasca

King Iso

Too much negativity, I need cleansing
Everybody want tea
I want this tea though, you feel me?

Iso learned that my old hurting is no further
Than dros lurking the gold currants
The drill surgeon that hole burning
It's so certain but won't flourish there's no currents
To throw verses I've shown Earth that I'm overt
When I go merk 'til they close curtains
So those words mean I'm on verge of a lone purge
Where my sole purpose is soul searching
The globe turning and while I smoke herb and I can feel it slow it up a bit it's so perfect
Take another sip of the brew
Then I get in tune with the universe
And I'm just letting go of the old dirt, dig?
And plant new seeds to grow earth with
The brain to see I'm more worth with
First it's traversing through the worst thing
Bursting to a birth of a new person
So who's working on they self and shit
For the world I mean, not no selfish shit
What you focused on? Choose the devil pin
Negativity, who's compelled to this?
Who the hell can use some help 'cause soon you felt consumed, compelled to s hoot yourself, I mean?
Use the belt to pull your health up to the shelf to dress you good and suit yourself I mean
What's the future hold I can tell it
Fuck it mask off on a psychedelic
Through desire borders homie I'm propelling
Royal rituals of a rhyming relic
I embellish legacies when I'm embedded
Like the code of my genetics
I am headed out to Cairo I go, hiero
Guys don't get it, reinvent yourself
Or you can die pathetic because

Energy is everything, we are all electric beings
Make a call for inner freedom, pick it up or let it ring
Never needed anyone just me, myself and I
Cleansing my spirit, getting high
I realise that's what I need to find
Ok now
Ayahuasca, why you ask about my life decisions
Take a sip then take a hit then make it seem so vivid
Demons tryna come murder me down eternally
So I'm cleansing my mind, body, and soul
My life's so outta control
Just take another sip then pass it then
Inhale another hit then pass it then
Ya gotta take another sip and pass it
Feeling psychedelic like I'm off, I'm off, I'm off
Take another sip then pass it then
Inhale another hit then pass it then
Ya gotta take another sip and pass it

Feeling psychedelic like I'm off, I'm off, I'm off

Everyone around me's parasitic
Negative energy just got me barely living
Separate then meditate so carefully with it
They're so shocked I made it shit I barely did it
Been so many times I was prepared to end it
Phoney family, homies hateful, barren women
Don't know who to pray to, I don't share religion
Looking in the mirror like "Is there an image?"
Where did I go, ISO, I won't find the light
You're bright so time won't buy no life as time goes
Bye yo, bye bro I know they was spirals side note
Might want try to buy your Bible
Psycho, die slow, I won't wife no trifle like your type though
Why your life's a typo
My, oh, my, my mind's gone ISO like those blind folks
Help me or as I've gone psycho
I'm woke, I can't sleep honest
Hear sirens, I'd rather have a Greek goddess
I eat education for breakfast daily
'Cause I'm lit like street knowledge
This industry just makes me vomit
But I'ma pimp it, get it pinky promised
There's no way I shouldn't be OK
When a nigga gettin' those plays with three commas
I get off of this ayahuasca then go to Zion from Babylon
How ironic I've pushed this product of righteous cleansing on Amazon
Damn I'm on one hell of a trip
Tryna find out if heaven exists
Can I have some of that medicine, miss?
Take a couple of puffs then I'm taking several trips like

Energy is everything, we are all electric beings
Make a call for inner freedom, pick it up or let it ring
Never needed anyone just me, myself and I
Cleansing my spirit, getting high
I realise that's what I need to find
Ok now
Ayahuasca, why you ask about my life decisions
