

Be Fine

King Iso

Yeah
Iso
They tell me to
Ease your mind
Ease your mind
Just listen

There's way too many people that don't talk about it
Whatever they're bottling up until it regurgitates
Was maybe feeling evil and you thought about it
Eventually you're gonna raise the murder rate
Hard to believe in a savior, you never learned to pray
Learn to play your part in your society 'til the curtain raise
Nervous breakdown with no mask on when you deserve the stage
Pearly gates, now I'm just an angel with a dirty face
I'm burning sage like settlements in an early age
Just to clear my mind like solitary for thirty days
'Cause when you forcefully medicated, it hurts your brain
Now you rebel from it, and yell stuff in assertive ways
The doctor won't understand you so you "deserve" a cage
Lock you up and then running tests on you like earning AID's
To think I was just a kid, man that's the perfect age
Now they keep you bound to only make it a certain way
That's why I'm getting lost up in this purple haze
Hustle what it costs for me to earn this pay
Shit, I ain't gotta talk soon as the burner raise
Somethin' like Kevin Hart you finna learn today
'Cause when this shit get hard who got more vertebra?
And day to day I gotta go and learn to take
My spirits in the hospital turnin' fake
And every day I hear one of the nurses say

Ease your mind
We all pretend to be fine
Ease your mind
We all pretend to be fine
Ease your mind
I'm smoking weed day to day
And drink 'til I fade away
Pop a pill just to save my brain
There's so much that I can't contain
I'm smoking weed day to day
And drink 'til I fade away
Pop a pill just to save my brain
There's so much that I can't contain

And before my love Sarah passed
She asked me if I thought she would be there to last
She came across happy but what's very sad
Is what she told me everyday because she wears a mask
Just think of some of the pain that she carried back
And forth from home all alone thanks for sharin' that Because I feel the same way about your paragraph
And I'm bein' metaphoric like a mirror fat
My mind I don't know where it's at, there's a fact
There is more to paranoia so I gotta wear the strap
Been an outcast since the youth, where's your parents at?

Speak my mind bet three stacks you ain't prepared for that
Far as the past you and your man was so unburying
I guess I got an old soul my ways of turnin' geriat?
Quick to curiosity to possibly be where it's at
Even if it kills me, death I ain't a scaredy cat
I try to ease my mind but I'm so caught up
No sleep what's keepin' me woke is this snow product
Mo' bottles and dro smoke 'til I go outta
My mind pretend to be fine, I don't gotta
No, not a soul around can know how to Deal with it yes we can like Obama
Oh momma, I'm so sorry I drove outta control
Remember one time my brother said bro you gotta just

Ease your mind
We all pretend to be fine
Ease your mind
We all pretend to be fine
Ease your mind
I'm smoking weed day to day
And drink 'til I fade away
Pop a pill just to save my brain
There's so much that I can't contain
I'm smoking weed day to day
And drink 'til I fade away
Pop a pill just to save my brain
There's so much that I can't contain
