

Golgotha 2 (Hellbound)

King Iso

How can I be something that doesn't exist?

They said that I'm a devil
If ever there was such a thing
Then they tell me they worship 'em
What the fuck does it mean?
You ever been dead, my friend?
So what was the scene?
It's all in your head
How dumb to fuck up your dreams?
How deadly can sudden be?
Not much cause I mean
Don't wanna do much
Stuck up and just wanna eat
If you got it, I want it
Why?
Just because all the greed and woman?
No

ISO was a nut bustin' fiend
Suck a duck you fother mucks
Cause blood sucka free
Middle fingers up to ones who come judgin' me
Succumb to what we see
Everyone wanna be
Because what? Money?
Naw! You're a blood suckin' leach
I'm a mothafuckin' beast
Yellin' "fuck what you preach!"
If you not real
How many claim, they love what they read
But then got killed
Babylon like what's the police?
We're already the second comin'
Here comes number three

And we'll be held down
I was under look what killer rel found
Everybody brainwashed and livin' with the spell now
When you get enlightened you got them killers on your trail now
Pretty soon the world is gonna yell out

Everyone is hellbound
You can see the signs homie
Everyone is hellbound
Open up your mind homie
Everyone is hellbound
You can see the signs homie
Everyone is hellbound
Open up your mind homie

Ayo, I spit hidden messages you couldn't flip backwards
Like inverting a cross upon a rich catholic
Ignorant folks don't know they're involved in mispractice
They get tatted and dressed
Thinking this shit fashion
And then they speeding in once
How they plan to rig masses

Already have
Now that I think it's been happen
One of you niggas quit saggin' or skip classes
And get gas then come to murder ya bitch asses
Listen, you're fixated on a fictional lit
That's it
The propaganda got you ideas mismatchin'
You think you workin' hard, for what?
A cause of a big asset
And when you lose it all
Get looked at like "shit happens"
How can you find truth in a book
If this shits clashin'
Rippin' up scriptures
Now the religions get clashin'
So now I may just quit askin'
I'ma just play hero with two horns everytime like Ben Affleck

And will be held down
I was under look what killer rel found
Everybody brainwashed and livin' with the spell now
When you get in light you got them killers on your trail now
Pretty soon the world is gonna get loud

Everyone is hellbound
You can see the signs homie
Everyone is hellbound
Open up your mind homie
Everyone is hellbound
You can see the signs homie
Everyone is hellbound
Open up your mind homie
