

I want to be god
'Least that's what I wanted
Then he gave me power
So much, I didn't want it
Man, I've been through hell
I know my time is coming
I'm looking in this mirror
Tell me I ain't haunted
Everybody hated me, now them people love me
Not when I was homeless, but because I'm something
I'm looking at this prison
Through a killer's eyes
I don't mean the system, I'm talking 'bout life
Felicia's old apartment, the police department
Swore I murdered someone, I still taste the carcass
My brother yelling at me, shrugging like whatever
'Fore I masked up, he told me get my shit together
Caught a [?] bitch, lost a couple kids
Took a couple ass whoopings, I lost, that's what it is
I said fuck this music, so I tossed it with the fib
Ain't no one I know been through the darkness that I've lived
The devil made me ruthless
C.O's took my blueprints, studied all my movements
The devils made me do this
I'm seizing this moment, you can call me Brutus
I pray to the sun, reading the gospel of Judas, nigga

I want to be god
'Least that's what I wanted
Then he gave me power
So much, I didn't want it
Man, I've been through hell
I know my time is coming
I'm looking in this mirror
Tell me I ain't haunted

I want to be god
'Least that's what I wanted
Then he gave me power
So much, I didn't want it
Man, I've been through hell
I know my time is coming
I'm looking in this mirror
Tell me I ain't haunted

Ikon...
