

Touch The Sky

King Iso

Yeah

ISO

I just be blunt blazin' and sun gazing and thinking of shit
I came up with this

Wasn't necessarily close before I jumped inside
So its kind of tough to try to listen to all your subtle cries
I live in disguise now like thugs who ride out mugging guys
From up where I'm the king saw a prince to get a dub to cry
Now what am I
Living that top tier like the first body above your eye
Blood inside my cell, tell 'em "Blood don't cry"
I'm with the one who rules like what's [?]
With an H though like a tumbled I
Got a bitter feeling looking at the front row, why?
'Cause they never had my back and now they front throw lies
Never had a [?]
Kind of [?] I can jumbo size
Speaking [?] but that's why my tongue so tied
Then I ran to a wreck when I was broke, right
Love your guys
Women too 'cause when you don't hold them down up here stuff don't fly
But oh lives
Now I hear friends telling me that you apologized and stuff grow I
Blunt rolled by
My [?] told me "Let it go", nickname me the utmost high
Some don't try but one more time
We knew just when we was gon' die
Don't lie on your love, no pride
So cutthroat guys don't touch those knives
Love your husbands plus your wives
And family, friends because bro, why
One day they'll be done just like me writing from the other side

This is my letter from the other side (side)
Seem like they never give a fuck till they see someone die (die)
Suffered in silence with no love, put that above your pride (pride)
All us fallen ones ever wanted was to touch the sky (sky)
Ay one mo' time
This is my letter from the other side (side)
Seem like they never give a fuck till they see someone die (die)
Suffered in silence with no love, put that above your pride (pride)
All us fallen ones ever wanted was to touch the sky (sky)
Touch the sky yeah

Y'all better not come near my funeral with that fake shit
No games how the Isoldiers come through
You know, with that drake' quick
High as hell off gas all the time
How I move and don't need my brakes switched?
It's insane how before I ever joined the group you knew I was (Brainsick)
Brand new coupe as I lane switch, with my main bitch and my stainless
Lambo doors turn to Angel wings so keep ammo bro as my aim shift
Third eye like my second son, how I plan to X out the lame shit
How y'all wait until I got fame with Mario to be on snake shit?
Look at the timeline and follow the timeline and see if I find time to say s hit

Never notice the [?] when I signed to Strange [?]
If you notice the fine line between the divine time [?] and anguish
You never get to say "bye", why? Because of the time flies
You wasted, fake and bruh, amen
Don't wait till my grave's dig
To say I'm your favorite
Or put me on your playlist
Isoldiers gon' be straight pissed
Whoever you hang with
A family you're great with Love them everyday and this the message, homie they think

This is my letter from the other side (side)
Seem like they never give a fuck till they see someone die (die)
Suffered in silence with no love, put that above your pride (pride)
