

To Be Honest

King Los

Oh, let's be honest, naw ain't fronting
Wasting all this time talking bout that bullshit
I ain't really with the cuffing
I'm just trying to be honest
Everything I said I meant, that's a promise
That's why [?] for my crew, my niggas stay 100 too
I'm just honest
If we take it to the crib will you give me what I want right now?
Girl you know what I want, no time for them games right now
Girl I know you want next, keep it 100

I been getting to it to be honest
Got my goonies sipping Don Julio with a few Rihannas
To be honest I been chilling, moving commas
I been killing to be honest
They just hating cause they want to move beyond us
To be honest once I throw this jewelry on your boo be on it
Never catch me coupe unless the roof be on it
To be honest you can't move the way I move, you too pionic
Keep your cool, to be honest we been known to sleep a fool
Crew be on it to be honest nigga
To be honest, who be on us?
We ain't falling like you haters truly want us to, we on to you
To be honest you the one you really should be honest to
To be honest nigga, to be honest
I'm just being honest
To be honest I put my hood on my back
Then I made it out by myself, that's understood, it's a fact
Moved my family to Hollywood cause the fucking hood is a trap
Imagine me raising my son and he grow up pushing them packs
To be honest nigga, that'd break my fucking heart
My homies never had a fucking start
To be honest, I'm just being honest
Can I be honest? Cause I'm just being honest nigga
To be honest
To be honest they'd rather hit the kitchen like Benihanas
Whip it whip it and keep the semi with em for any drama
Then to make a penny honest to be honest they'll rob a nigga blind
Let him live to be modest, to be honest these niggas done never helped me
Never liked me or felt me
Want to be in the picture but bitch I'm just taking selfies
To be honest, to be honest, they pray for your expiration
Praise your relationships then they pray for your separation
I pray for your education, paces and dedication
But I don't owe you shit, not even an explanation
To be honest nigga, to be honest
I'm just being modest nigga, yeah
To be honest, who be on us?
We ain't falling like you haters truly want us to, we on to you
To be honest you the one you really should be honest to
