

We Aint The Same

King Los

Shed a lot of blood and cried a lot of tears just to get a nigga here
You're the employee of the month but I'm the man of the year
Might breathe like me but can't see like me, court vision for the game
Finally this point just to prove this point that we are not the same

We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)
We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)
We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)
We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)

King Los ah
Dear pops, I had a dream and you appeared in it twice
You were near to me, and you were here with advice
Your view is clear and precise, fewer pears in my life will pursue the fears that they felt
And you appeared to be right
You told me never way 'cause the way that I would abandon
Will hit the ground til it's shaking, then crack and create a canyon
In other words this world is my canvass so paint freely
But paint freedom 'cause this here's so deep that you can't free me
Before you faded you stayed evasive, an alcoholic
Inside my heart, well just haunt me or hall me until I'm honest
Honestly I am on it, on it, be on the comet
The comet beyond the stars, startin to really vomit
To seek inscriptions in scriptures, my shit's equipped with this gift
And this quickened wisdom my vision, vision livin in rhythm
Different from niggas triggered by trickery in the prison
Your answered wishing was given and faded off in the distance like

Shed a lot of blood and cried a lot of tears just to get a nigga here
You're the employee of the month but I'm the man of the year
Might breathe like me but can't see like me, court vision for the game
Finally this point just to prove this point that we are not the same

We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)
We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)
We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)
We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)

Wuddup Los? Twista
To live the life I live, my soul is matching perfect
Just check how graphic the verses, the others gon scratch the surface
I'm ugly as after birth is
Wicked as snatching purses
Fuck bitches with matching purses,
Put niggas in matching hearses ah
Be different but it really kinda weighs
And it's why I gotta let you know about you
Used to be up on the block on the roof

When I see a nigga pull up on the block, let's shoot
What you lookin at the shock and the proof?
Witness how we are so different
You happy with what you got, I see more then go get it
Yea, why you say if you read you'd notice
I'd never settle for less, I look for ulterior motives
A confident kind but pop his collars for riches
Corner congressman but Nostradamus
With Glock and dollars and bitches
I'm as ambitious as a king can be
Spin the vinyl right back, with a backpack and a fast sack
In the backpack with a backpack, never gonna look at things
Everybody never knew I'm in another universe
I'm a never be the image of another one
Los and Twista nigga, light up
Smoke another one and another one

Shed a lot of blood and cried a lot of tears just to get a nigga here
You're the employee of the month but I'm the man of the year
Might breathe like me but can't see like me, court vision for the game
Finally this point just to prove this point that we are not the same

We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)
We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)
We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)
We are not the same, we are not the same
(We're not the same)
