

You know did it on purpose
Prayed on all fours
I watch you whine at the sky so it hurts less
A dog at the door

Devoured by desire
It's the fate of life
Oh you don't want it? You're a liar

I know you wanna be a God
You pray for power in the dark
Don't mistake this for an omen
This is your chance to be chosen

You say wanna be a God?
You pray for power in the dark
You broke it you bought it you own it
You want the world and you know it

Isn't it fun?
Isn't it nice?

Feeling the rush
Feeling the high

You wanna touch
You wanna bite
Open your mouth
I can provide

Just understand your mine
Know the fate of life
And I could give you time

Oh so you wanna be a God?
You pray for power in the dark
Don't mistake this for an omen
This is your chance to be chosen

You say wanna be a God?
You pray for power in the dark
You broke it you bought it you own it
You want the world and you know it
