KiNG MALA

I don't think I believe in god anymore
I got enough reasons
The blood the lust the rot and gore

But mostly the shit that I don't buy
Is we woulda been just fine
If there was some big fucking man in the sky

Gods on tv
Telling me the things I need

Gods on tv
But I don't believe in anything

If there was a god we woulda made it
You look so perfect
How could it have not been fated

The universe has got me pulling teeth
It shouldn't be this difficult
To take back what belongs to me

I think it's time to admit my failure
My failure
Cause the church cant save us now
There's nothing in the scripture

Gods on tv
Telling me the things I need

Gods on tv
But I don't believe in anything
