

SALVATION::VIOLATION

KiNG MALA

You look so pretty with your heart in your mouth
My taste on your tongue
Your knees on the ground

The air is heavy but you won't say out loud
What you want from this night
No need to be proud

I could reanimate you
I could annihilate you
If you just ask I could come and I could violate you

There is no revelation
If you show hesitation
There's no remorse only invitation

Only I could save you now

(I am the godless one)

Come and let me show you how

Cause it's only a moment
Just breath in and hold it
You'll feel it I know it

Only I could save you now

I know it's terrifying
But you're so close now
The silence so loud

All of this sanctifying
Your lungs move slow now
Exhale yourself out

Look at the way we move
So unholly and untamed
When I hear you say my name

You wanna be made new?
Give your petals to the flame
You want your flowers
I want the same

Only I could save you now
Come and let me show you how

Cause it's only a moment
Just breath in and hold it
You'll feel it I know it
