

Sloppy

KiNG MALA

God called
She said I'm headed
Straight into the fire

But I like the way that it burns

Karma
Keeps showing up and
Slashing all my tires

But maybe that's what I deserve

For being this reckless
Eating my breakfast
With a side regret placing my bets
Earning my spot on the blacklist

God called
She said it's toxic
That I like to suffer
I blocked her number

Tried it all
Played my role
Did everything I was told
But the universe still has me
In the chokehold

So, if life is gonna fuck me
Then give it to me sloppy
On a silver platter
Serve me a disaster
Get undressed leave a mess
Worry bout it after

Get in bed with my dread
Nothing really matters

Last night
I heard my future
Tapping on my window
She was scary but I let her inside

Did lines in the bathroom
Made out on the floor
She tried to stay over
So I showed her the door

'Cause tried it all
Played my role
Did everything I was told
But the universe still has me
In the chokehold

If life is gonna fuck me
Then give it to me sloppy
On a silver platter

Serve me a disaster

If life is gonna fuck me
It better call me mommy
Bend me over backwards
Dare to make me sadder
Get undressed
Leave a mess

Nothing really matters

Chaos
Loveless
Train wreck
Living for the sickness

Psycho
Villain
Eyes closed
Sloppy but I'm serving

I know, I know, I know
Nothing really matters
