

Alone Again

King Princess

I'm a loser, she's a taker
And a user of what I gave her
All my friends said, "Don't instigate her"
But I did it and now we're right here

Crying on the floor, begging through the door
Now I'm alone again
Screaming through the phone, I should have probably known
Now I'm alone again

I'm a loser, she's a stranger
Once my best friend, now she's danger
God, it's tragic, God, it's painful
It's as expected to be right here

Crying on the floor, begging through the door
Now I'm alone again
Screaming through the phone, I should have probably known
Now I'm alone again

You break a glass, I yell your name
Bring up the past to cause me pain
I want to die, you'll never change
I fall apart, you pick me up
Kiss my lips, then punch my heart
I want to die, this can't be us

Crying on the floor, begging through the door
Now I'm alone again
Screaming through the phone, I should have probably known
Now I'm alone again

Sleeping late
Sleeping late
Meds on the night stand
Body aches
Body aches
Picturing your hands on his face
On his face
I can't believe it's over
Bigger dreams
Bigger dreams
Bigger dreams
I got bigger dreams
Bigger dreams
Then being your baby
Honestly
I'm so relieved it's over
