

I wake up at 4
Go over to check that you're still there
Soft and pure
Like my personal anchor

And I feel adored
You say with your eyes
That you so care
And for that I'm sure
You keep me from danger

And I'm not lonely
Only since you've been by my side
Like a crowbar
Prying at the chip on my shoulder
And I'm tightly

Strung I know I could have died
But that's over
And you seem to have helped with the closure

I stay up 'til 4
Pacing around the place I rent
Pack more and more
To lessen my failure

Well it had to end
I've had to dissolve my faking friends
Take you instead
And goodbye to the strangers

'Cause I'm not lonely
Only since you've been by my side
Like a crowbar
Prying at the chip on my shoulder
I'm so tightly
Strung, I know I could have died
But that's over
And you seem to have helped with the closure

Losing sleep
And bags of pleasure
I think that you suit me better

'Cause I'm not lonely
Only since you've been by my side
Like a crowbar
Prying at the chip on my shoulder
I'm so tightly
Strung, I know I could have died
But that's over
And you seem to have helped with the closure
