Forget About It

King Princess

It's better when the weekends
I'm sleeping the weekdays
And you're thinking 'bout if your friends and my friends will be friends
So just forget I ever told you things, babe
Remember when I showed you things

Forget about it
I told you that I'll never forget you
And I never forget you
Good things come under patience
I'm waiting and waiting and waiting
(Forget about it)
You thought that I would never do better
But I'm already better
Good things come under patience
I'm waiting and waiting and waiting
(Forget about it)

Started feeling like all your shit is my shit, I can't win
I probably told you that your work's sick and I was lying
So if you call me, it's a no from me
You wanna love me, it's a no from me
You wanna fuck me, it's a no from me

You can forget about it
I told you that I'll never forget you
And I never forget you
Good things come under patience
I'm waiting and waiting and waiting
(Forget about it)
Thought that I could never do better
But I'm already better
Good things come under patience
I'm waiting and waiting and waiting
(Forget about it)
You can forget about it

I hate being patient
I miss when you're naked babe
I'm waiting and waiting

You can forget about it
I told you that I'll never forget you
And I never forget you
Good things come under patience
I'm waiting and waiting and waiting
(Forget about it)
You thought that I would never do better
But I'm already better
Good things come under patience
I'm waiting and waiting and waiting
(Forget about it)
