

Homegirl

King Princess

Well they stare, when you walk in the room, like they're looking at Heaven
Oh you know that those boys will do more than just look if you let them

But I don't wanna be like them, with you
But you still look at me like him

And you taste like danger but I feel so safe in your arms
And I like the way that you talk, slow
Spelling my name with your tongue, so
You don't have to say it
We're friends at the party, I'll give you my body at home

Well I stare when you walk in the room, like I'm scared to forget you
If you're thinking that I'm gonna act like those boys, I would never

But I don't wanna be like them, with you
But you still look at me like him

And you taste like danger but I feel so safe in your arms
And I like the way that you talk, slow
Spelling my name with your tongue, so
You don't have to say it
We're friends at the party, I'll give you my body at home

But I feel so safe in your arms
And I like the way that you talk, slow
Spelling my name with your tongue, so
You don't have to say it
We're friends at the party, I'll give you my body at home