

RIP KP

King Princess

Outside and the sun is shining
Her lips look like cherry ice
With whipped cream and a perfect smile
My girl could destroy your life

Like she did to mine
I been cut to pieces
As she proved me right

Your heart beating
I'm so easily turned into someone
Reeling, feeling

If you want it on the floor, you can have it like that
Up against the door, you can have it like that
If you get a little bored, I can change it like-, ah-ah
You want a little huh
Baby, say it like that

Say it like- (La-da-da)
Say it like that (La-la-da)
Say it like- (La-la-da)

Inside by the bedroom window
She's posed like a painting might
Wet hair dripping down her spine
My girl could destroy your like

Like she did to mine
I been cut to pieces
As she proved me right

Your heart beating
I'm so easily turned into someone
Reeling, feeling

If you want it on the floor, you can have it like that
Up against the door, you can have it like that
If you get a little bored, I can change it like-, ah-ah
You want a little huh
Baby, say it like that

Say it like-
Say it like that
Say it like-

La-da-da
La-da-da
La-da-da
La-da-da
