

The Bend

King Princess

I hear it all and I see it all
But I shut up and listen
Well, they let me drive
But don't scratch the car
Without permission

Well, I just wanna feel again
I just wanna wash my hands
I should make an OnlyFans
Show them I can catch the man
Why you so irrational?
Why you always on a ten?
'Cause I don't think that I'm living, oh

When I get over the bend
I'm overwhelmed again, again
Again I'm seeing red
And I don't have to take it hard
You should tell that to my head again
Again there goes my friends

Two months apart
And cars and plane
I've never had a vacation
I should be here with you
Instead, got a picture of you naked

But I just wanna feel again
I just wanna wash my hands, yeah
And I should make an OnlyFans
Smoke a little contraband, yeah
Why you so emotional?
Why you always on a ten?
'Cause I don't think that I'm living

When I get over the bend
I'm overwhelmed again, again
Again, I'm seeing red
And I don't have to take it hard
You should tell that to my head again
Again there goes my friends

I should make an OnlyFans
I just wanna be the man, yeah
Everybody condescends
They don't wanna understand, yeah
I just wanna feel again
I just wanna be the man, yeah
I just wanna feel again
I just wanna feel again

When I get over the bend
I'm overwhelmed again, again
They say, "you don't have to take it hard"
You should tell that to my head again
Again there goes my friends

When I get over the bend
I'm overwhelmed again, again
Again I'm seeing red
They say, "you don't have to take it hard"
You should tell that to my head again
I'm losing friends
