

Trust Nobody

King Princess

I don't ever trust nobody
No, I don't ever trust
But I trust you
Ain't that great?

And I'm still dumb when no one's watching
I bet you're cool when no one's watching you
I guess it's fate

And she said, "Meet me at the party"
But I don't know nobody
And she said, "I'm getting there"
They treat you like a ticket
But I just want to kick it
And honey, I'll take you there

Oh, when everyone starts calling for me
I'll only pick up for you

Well, I don't ever trust nobody
And they think I'm cute and kind of funny
Oh, I'll guess that's fair?
And I get dumb when you start talking
And one more night and I might fall for you
Oh, I'm there

And she said, "Meet me at the party"
But I don't know nobody
And she said, "I'm getting there"
They treat you like a ticket
But I just want to kick it
And honey, I'll take you there

Oh, when everyone starts calling for me
Oh, I'll only pick up for you

Watching me slip over words
It kind of hurts
For what it's worth
I just want to be with you, babe

I don't know nobody
She said, "I'm getting there"
And she said, "Meet me at the party"
But I don't know nobody, baby

(Watching me slip over words)
It kind of hurts
For what it's worth
I just want to be with you

(They treat you like a ticket)
But I just want to kick it
Watching me slip over words
It kind of hurts
For what it's worth
I just want to be with you

(I just want to be with you)

I don't know nobody
But she said I'm getting there

(I just want to be with you)
(I just want to be with you)
(I just want to be with you)
(I just want to be with you)...
