

Paradise Lost

King Woman

Confused, I woke up in the dust
Stunned and abandoned, cast from her
No one was watching over me
When you commanded that she hurts

He stole the life from my eyes
Voice was so misleading
Leaves me naked, yeah
I need a place I can grieve

Paradise is lost

We have been thrown from Eden
I need to find the maker
You're gonna blame it on me
It's just the saddest story

Only my touch can make you whole
Expunge the record that we've sown
Follow me back, follow the voice

He stole the light from my eyes
Voices so misleading
Leaves me naked, yeah
I need a place I can grieve

Paradise is lost

Thrown from our intimacy
That voice was so misleading
I need a place I can grieve
It's just the saddest story
