

At The Same Pace

Kingcrow

The promise that you made
"You'll never be alone"
To that adoring child
"I'll join you on your path"
Countless moments
Your words helped me
Stand on my feet again
"You'll never be alone"

Now your final moments slip away so fast
While I'm holding your hand
Life is strange sometimes
I'm echoing your words

Together we are and will stay
Perhaps just in a different way
The moments we shared, the words that we said
I only know this
That what we had won't die

A strong connection
Something never felt before
No clear direction
Something never tried before

You're always by my side
'Cause nothing really dies
You're always by my side
'Cause nothing really dies

The promise that you made
I'm making to you now

A thread that never breaks
"You'll never be alone"
All that we carry inside

Together we are and will stay
Perhaps just in a different way
The moments we shared, the words that we said
I only know this
That what we had won't die
And this is not goodbye...
