

Closer

Kingcrow

Call me again - in your mind
Follow the lights on the road
Shufflin' of bare feet at night
Into the unknown

Call me again - in your mind
Feeling your heart while you roam
How can you tell they are right
On your worn-out hope?

Day after day we get closer
Closer than before
We set our limits little further
Deep beneath the skin
I long for that

There is no place here to hide
Facing new tears with old thought
We know there will be a light
At the end of the rope

There is no need here to hide
There is no way to get lost
Even if your fear is mine
We won't really fall

Day after day we get closer
Closer than before
We set our limits little further
Deep beneath the skin
I long for that
