

Everything Goes

Kingcrow

Your hands again upon the ground
Falling rain for hours and hours
As you learn the game
Time dispels the fog

Your hands again upon the ground
Falling rain and heavy hours
As you leave the game
Time to bless the fall

Ever been there?
Ever felt like prey?
Ever thought your mind was feeble?
Lot of things that don't make sense

Can you hear me?
Can you feel this pain?
If you have a raging fever
You're about to turn the page

We know nothing in the end
From wherever you begin
Can you guess the name of what is right
In dealing with your pain?

Can't you see it?
Everything comes
Just deal with it
Everything goes

Learning how to fall
Learning how to play this game
In dealing with your pain
