

Glitch

Kingcrow

Hands down the busiest place is my head
And now the noise here has increased then
Speak out loud! Is it you voice that rings into my ears?

Wanna get some peace of mind
Wanna get some peace of mind

Too tired there is no place to fit in Sometimes I'm tempted to give in and
My own life is like a flashing light beneath that lamp

Wanna get some peace of mind
Wanna get some peace of mind

Being dragged down in this quarter
Where the worst just takes over
Emptiness
All made up of cliches and cosmetic pain

Being dragged down in the water
No one swims, they just bother
Shells of men
Careful not to fill up, otherwise they'll drown

Slow down! This never meant to be seen
Right now I feel I'm in a glitch
Stuck here without the slightest clue of why I'm even here

Wanna get some peace of mind now

Being dragged down in this quarter
Where the worst just takes over
Emptiness
All made up of cliches and cosmetic pain

Rush headlong and keep running
Then this time take the wrong way
'Cause you know
You'd much rather be happy than right any day

And this glitch, like a flow
Like I've never seen before, seen before
Widens in the world I know, ever more
They can't hide it anymore, anymore
I'm not going to play along nevermore
